St. Rocco's Homeless Shelter In Newark Receives Toy Donations

December 11- Newark, NJ, Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Newark has received toy donations from New Jersey's Institute of Real Estate, Chapter No. 1 Management (IREM #1) for distribution at St. Rocco's Family Shelter in Newark. St. Rocco's Shelter was selected to be the beneficiary of IREM's annual toy drive. The President of IREM NJ #1, Jon Weller presented Catholic Charities' Associate Executive Director, Elizabeth McClendon with bags of toys and donations for the children. Mrs. McClendon spoke at IREM's dinner about Catholic Charities' work at St. Rocco's shelter and how important their generous donations are to the families that live there. Catholic Charities is thankful for the kindness and charitable giving from IREM as well as all of the donations received during this Christmas season and throughout the year. For more information on giving to Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Newark please visit our website at www.ccannj.com.
